NOTE FROM THE VICAR OF ROWLEY REGIS (THE REV. A. F. DAUGLISH)
CONCERNING THE FIRE AT ROWLEY REGIS CHURCH, 18TH JUNE, 1913.

When the iron chest containing the registers was opened early in the morning of the day succeeding the disastrous fire of June 18th, 1913, it seemed as if all that was left of this wonderful series of registers was a pile of wet charred fragments. With considerable difficulty these fragments have been identified, but the paper leaves are so brittle and blackened and the parchment leaves so shrunk and stuck together that it is often almost impossible to decipher the entries.

It is a matter for great thankfulness that the whole series has been transcribed and printed for the Staffordshire Parish Register Society, to whom and in particular to Miss Auden, F.R.Hist.S., and her father, the Rev. Prebendary Auden, F.S.A., Rowley Regis owes a debt which can never be adequately acknowledged.

ROWLEY REGIS REGISTERS.

	Baptisms.	Burials.	Marriages.	Leaves.	Size.	Present Condition.

Of course he was a drunkard in the most proper sense of the word. The evening before his death, viz., Decr. 25, he left a public house in the lower side of this parish where he had spent a great part of the day, in a state of intoxication, uttering profane curses. He was found dead & cold early the next morning at a very small distance from that house. Let every drunkard beware.
